Mr. Jackson –

Mr. Altman will agree to the 30 day extension of time for Plaintiffs to respond to the Motions to Dismiss, making Plaintiffs' responses due on December 28, 2022, and that Defendants' replies are due January 19, 2023, subject to Court approval.

Please send us a stipulation or unopposed motion for this requested adjournment.

Thank you.

Subject: RE: Lento v. Altman - Adjournment request

Dear Mr. Altman,

There are two lengthy motions pending (one is 44 pages, the other is 31 pages), each with a significant number of legal arguments to be addressed. We provided you with a 60-day extension to respond to the complaint, which allowed you time to draft these motions. I asked for an additional 30 days because that was the absolute minimum amount of time we need to properly respond to these motions. Unfortunately, the additional 7 days you offered will not be nearly enough time, especially given the approaching holiday. I am reiterating my original request for a 30-day extension, which I believe is customary and more than fair, given the situation.

Thank you,
Sam

Mr. Jackson –

Mr. Altman has asked me to respond on his behalf.

He is agreeable to the following enlarged briefing schedule:

Plaintiffs' responses to Defendants' Motions to Dismiss due on December 12, 2022;

Defendants' reply briefs would be due on December 23, 2022.

Please let us know if that is acceptable to you.

Thank you.

Good morning,

I have received both motions to dismiss. Would you consent to adjourn them 30 days?

Thank you,
Sam
